Dear Mrs

Manley I received your letter and was very glad to hear from you. Mary and my self are just fine and hope you and Mr Manley are the same. my plans are made I am ready to say bye. I told you about the tobacco farm here. Mrs Manley I ask you to let me have $2.00 dollars.
I need it real bad. I don't think Mary can come up this year because she is going to have a baby I got a little job but it's not much Mrs Manley really need the money and the quicker you send for me it is the better because I want to leave here now, and I am looking to hear from you soon,

your Truly
James Hill
